EXECUTIVE DECLARATION

Governor John Engler
Hereby issues this Executive Declaration in Observance of October 29, 2002

as

TURKISH REPUBLIC DAY

WHEREAS, October 29, 2001, marks the anniversary of the emergence of the Turkish Republic from the Ottoman Empire; and

WHEREAS, Michigan is fortunate to count among our population numerous families of Turkish descent whose culture and heritage enrich our communities and whose contributions enhance our society; and

WHEREAS, a government who is accountable to the people constitutes the cornerstones of Turkish Democracy; and

WHEREAS, The Republic of Turkey is one of the ten largest emerging markets, the 16th largest economy, and has become the second largest trading partner with United States; and

WHEREAS, the State of Michigan wishes to recognize and celebrate the common goals and ideals of the Republic of Turkey and the United States, and to reaffirm the partnership between the two nations, especially when promoting peace and security in the world;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Engler, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby declare October 29, 2002, as TURKISH REPUBLIC DAY in Michigan, and I urge all citizens to join with me and our citizens of Turkish descent in recognizing this historic observance and to recognize the sacrifices made by the people of Turkey in their pursuit of freedom and democracy.

Given under my hand on this fifteenth day of October in the year of our Lord two thousand and two and of the Commonwealth one hundred and sixty-five.

[Signature]
Governor